ADIRONDACK BUYER DAYS

Wednesday, March 5, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Thursday, March 6, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Saratoga City Center | Saratoga Springs, New York

Product photos from the following attending vendors: Caspar's Candles, Down to Earth Jewelry, LionheArt Graphics, Woodpecker Axe & Leather Co. and Argyle Cheese Farmer

Adirondack Buyer Days is a not-for-profit trade show brought to you each year through the generosity of ANCA's members, donors, grantors, and sponsors.

ANCA, the Adirondack North Country Association, is an independent, nonprofit corporation with a transformational approach to building prosperity across northern New York. Using innovative strategies for food systems, clean energy, small businesses, and diversity, equity, inclusion & belonging, ANCA delivers targeted interventions that create and sustain wealth and value in local communities.

To become an ANCA member or supporter, contact Iris Li: ili@adirondack.org

To all of the small businesses who take part in Adirondack Buyer Days,

THANK YOU.

You are the backbone of our economy.

You provide goods, services, jobs, and gathering places for your neighbors.

You contribute to the character of our communities, making us proud to live here, and making visitors happy to return.

We appreciate you!

2026 DATES: MARCH 23-24

Mark your calendar for the 40th Adirondack Buyer Days at the Saratoga City Center!

Thank you

to this year's show sponsors & supporters!

BOOTH #3

Adirondack Fragrance &
Flavor Farm
Potsdam, NY

In the Adirondack region of New York State, fragrance experts, Yen Maine and Sandy Maine (Founder) have planted, watered, weeded, grown, harvested, and crafted quality natural products for over 40 years. Our vision is to encourage natural living by sharing the unique botanicals and alluring spirit of the Adirondack Region with people everywhere.

BOOTH #2

AMF Creations
Cape Vincent, NY

Handmade note cards with woodland, forest and waterfront themes. 100% cotton flannel blankets perfect for children or as lap blankets. The more they are used, the softer they become! We scour garage sales for books that are going to be discarded and turn them into our handmade journals, made from the front and back covers. The pages are used to make ornaments, roses and bags. We also use the printed paper to make new blank paper. Every part of the book is used.

BOOTH #42-43

Apothecary Chocolates
Colton, NY

Small-batch, handcrafted chocolates made with all natural and organic ingredients. Using our Western Medical background, Traditional Chinese Medicine Degree, and our extensive creative skills, we've taken compatible herbs and tailored each confection for optimal botanical balance.

BOOTH #46

Holly Berry
Troy, NY

Holly Berry strives to create art that is accessible and affordable. I am a firm believer in creating products at all price points so there is something for everyone. I have my prints made out of the highest quality archival paper from a printer that donates a portion of their revenue towards helping shelter cats. I am very picky about the quality and durability of my items. Lower cost does not equal lower quality.

BOOTH #57

Menai & Co.
Theresa, NY

We started out as commercial beekeepers, but due to angry bears attacking our bee yards we started to make candles. We produce small batch hand-poured candles, melts and room sprays in Northern NY with as few ingredients as possible. Our products are phthalate free and non toxic to humans and pets. We use only US grown soy in our candles and fragrance oils produced here in the US. We are proud to be able to offer affordable luxury products and share all that our region has to offer.

Rachel's Spice & Tea Co.
Queensbury, NY

Rachel spent 20 years deep in the trenches of restaurants and that is where Rachel's Spice Co was born. Rachel is passionate about spices and how they can make food better with very little culinary know how. She finds it more rewarding to help someone to cook everyday at home than to make them a single meal. Because of this, the focus of her blends is functionality, practicality, and flexibility.

The Family Cow Soaps
North Hudson, NY

My family of nine started The Family Cow Soaps as a way to make better, more gentle soaps for all the hand-washing we do on our small family-run farm.

Our handmade milk soaps made a huge difference for our skin during the cold dry winters of Northern NY, and chapped, dry hands became almost obsolete. Named after our dairy cow Esther, The Family Cow offers a main line of all natural milk bars as well as all natural vegan bars. www.thefamilycowsoaps.com

YOUR FEEDBACK, PLEASE:

We depend on your input when planning future shows. Help us provide you with what you need to get out of Buyer Days.

This survey is for buyers.

The vendor survey will be handed out and emailed.

Ways to let us hear your feedback:

1. Email: When you see the survey in your inbox, please take a few moments to respond.
2. Fill out the printed survey on the last page of this booklet and drop it off at the registration table as you leave.
3. Use the camera on your phone to scan the QR code here and go right to the survey online.

2026 DATES: MARCH 23-24

In the spirit of economic development: Did you know?

- Money spent at local businesses generates 3.5x more wealth for the local economy compared to money spent at big box stores.
- Shopping locally helps cut down on processing, packaging and transportation waste, leading to less pollution.
- Local business generates 70% more local economic activity per square foot than big box retail.
- Local, independent makers are more likely to reuse materials.
- If every family in the U.S. spent an extra $10 a month at a locally owned, independent business instead of a national chain, over $9.3 billion would be directly returned to our economy.
